PURPOSE

The IHSA maintains rules for how athletic boosters are to conduct themselves on the field and off. As a supporting member of Marian Central Catholic High School, we are responsible to agree with these standards. The communication written in this handbook is extremely important.

VOLUNTEER GUIDELINES

Thank you for your support of the Marian Central Catholic High School Hurricanes. The success of our Booster depends on you. Without you we cannot exist. We want this experience to be one the most gratifying experience you have ever had.

You can help the Hurricanes Booster by being familiar with the IHSA rules.

Expectations of Parents Coaching High School Sports is an extremely difficult vocation. Being a Parent of a High School Athlete is also extremely difficult. If we understand where each position begins and the other ends we are better able to accept the actions of one another and provide a great experience for everyone.

Please;

- Consider the things that you hear or see at the Marian Central Catholic High School as confidential. Do not publicly criticize Marian Central Catholic High School coaches or their athletes.
- Maintain a consistent attendance. Notify the Director of Volunteering if you must be absent from your volunteering duty and who you have for your replacement.
- Never forget that these are games, and games are meant to be fun.
- Always compliment athletes no matter what their level of play.
- Remember, you only get one chance to make a first impression. Someone attending an athletic event for the first time here may leave with an unfavorable impression of who we are if at that game we were unsportsmanlike.
- Never embarrass your athlete or our Marian Central Catholic High School.
- Respect officials and how difficult your job is.
- Remain calm always.
- Do not put pressure on the participating athletes. Pressure eliminates the fun and can lead to non-involvement.
- Understand that not everyone can play all the time. Accept that each athlete has a role in the development of the whole team. Sometimes that role is not on the court or the field but helping on the sidelines.

- As an adult, let your behavior be an example. Let our athletes see how they should conduct themselves when they are adults and keep in mind that they are observing all of us for what is acceptable behavior.

We all want a great experience for our student athletes.

Being a Hurricanes Booster Volunteer Parent is an important position with the Marian Central Catholic High School and with it comes these responsibilities and expectations.

Communicating with Coaches As a Hurricanes Booster Volunteer Parent you will communicate fairly and openly with our Coaches with honesty and with respect.

You will communicate issues and concerns in an appropriate and timely manner, including those of physical and emotional wellbeing on behalf of your athlete.

Chain of Communication Following is the appropriate chain of communication while expressing your concerns;

1. First communicate with the Assistant Coach
2. Next the Head Coach
3. Then the Athletic Director
4. Finally, the Marian Central Catholic High School Principal

Appropriate concerns to discuss with Coaches It is important to understand that there are times when things do not go the way you or your child wishes. At these times discussion with the coach is encouraged. Such concerns include:

- The treatment of your child mentally and physically
- Ways you may be able to help your child improve
- Concerns about your child's behavior

Our Coaches are professionals. They make judgement decisions based on what they believe to be best for all their athlete involved.

Issues not appropriate to discuss with Coaches

- Your child's playing time
- Team strategy
- Play calling

- Other their athlete athletes

Demonstrate Good Sportsmanship You will reflect good sportsmanship by:

- Support our coaches and officials to foster a positive, enjoyable experience for all our athlete athletes. This is not the NFL, NBA or the Olympics.
- Understand the game is for our athletes and not for the adults.
- Recognize that your student athlete's participation in the Marian Central Catholic High School athletics program is a privilege.
- Use good sportsmanship as a spectator and conduct yourself in a manner that reflects well on both the team, the Marian Central Catholic High School and The Hurricanes Booster.
- Promote our team by being supportive and helpful of the Marian Central Catholic High School program.
- Refrain from coaching your own athlete from the stands or the sidelines.
- Keep consistence with your athlete's attendance at practices and games.

Creating a Supportive Environment You will create a positive and supportive environment by:

- Supporting good conditioning and healthy lifestyle habits.
- Placing the emotional and physical wellbeing of your athlete ahead of any personal desire to win.
- Expecting your athlete to play in a safe and healthy environment.
- Supporting your athlete in planning how to meet your academic responsibilities given the demands of training and practice.
- Being a role model for other parents by remaining positive at sporting events.

There are some limitations and exceptions governing the exemption:

concession stands of an ongoing nature such as during basketball games are still taxable.
